“Singing is for one who loves.” (St. Augustine) Sacred Music is held in high esteem in the celebration of Mass. There is an importance to the singing at Mass and, as the General Instruction of the Roman Missal tells us, “every care should be taken that singing by the ministers and the people not be absent in celebrations that occur on Sundays and Holy days of Obligation.” (GIRM #40) Sacred music produces deeper prayer and confers greater solemnity upon the sacred rites. The choir at Mass is part of the great “musical tradition of the universal Church” (SC #112). The choir provides an important function because it brings to life that music that we use to pray the Mass, giving greater glory to God.
